RE: EXTENSION OF SPECIAL IMMIGRANT STATUS FOR AFGHANI AND IRAQI SPECIAL IMMIGRANTS

PROGRAM AFFECTED: ALL PROGRAMS

ORIGINATING OFFICE: OFFICE OF PROGRAMS

SUMMARY:

Action Transmittal 08-30, issued April 28, 2008, described the special immigrant status for certain Iraqis and Afghani immigrants beyond their status as a legal permanent resident (LPR). Individuals and family members granted this special immigration status are eligible for resettlement assistance, the Food Supplement Program (FSP), Temporary Cash Assistance, Refugee Cash Assistance and Refugee Medical Assistance on the same basis as refugees admitted under section 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), except this period of special eligibility cannot exceed 6 months from the date of entry into the United States for Afghanis or 8 months from date of entry for Iraqis.

After this 6 or 8 month period, the immigrant is not eligible for benefits on the same basis as a refugee, but since they are legal permanent residents (LPR), they are qualified immigrants. The case manager must determine the eligibility of recipients beyond the 6 or 8 month period, based on each program's policy.

Action transmittal 08-30 limited the special status through September 30, 2008.

ACTION REQUIRED:

The Disaster Assistance and Continuing Appropriations Act, 2009 extends the appropriations for Afghanis from September 2008 through September 30, 2009. 2008 legislation extended the period for special immigrant status for Iraqis until September 30, 2012.

ACTION DUE:

The policy is effective upon receipt of this action transmittal. Restore benefits to households that have been denied prior to receipt of this transmittal based on immigration status.
