THE

Law School of the University of Maryland,

After a long period of suspension, was reorganized and opened on the 1st February, 1870, and since that date the instruction of the classes has proceeded, without interruption, through three full terms. The Second Annual Session closed on the 31st May, and the first commencement was held, with appropriate exercises, on 3d June, 1871. The following named gentlemen, having completed the prescribed course, passed the examination and delivered in Theses, on subjects assigned them, as required by the Charter, were duly admitted to the Degree of BACHELOR OF LAWS, viz:

- ✓ JOHN J. DONALDSON of Howard County, Md.
- ✓ JOHN H. B. LATROBE, JR., of Baltimore City, Md.
- ✓ HARRY E. MANN of Baltimore City, Md.
- ✓ CHARLES K. POE of Baltimore City, Md.
- ✓ CHR. C. SHRIVER of Carroll County, Md.
- ✓ SAMUEL E. TURNER, JR., of Baltimore City, Md.

And an interesting and instructive address was delivered to these graduates by the HON. REVERDY JOHNSON, LL. D.

The exercises of the School will be resumed on the first Monday of October next, and continued until the 31st May following. The method of instruction pursued is by daily lectures, accompanied by the study of the text of approved authors on the subjects of lecture, with oral examinations on both. A MOOT COURT is held by one or other of the Professors, each week during the term, in the exercises of which the students are practised in the application of the principles and rules of law, taught them in the daily instructions of the class, and are trained for the debates of the forum.

Seven Courts in daily session in the city, embracing the administration of law and equity in the Federal and State jurisdictions, offer to the students attending this School abundant opportunity and unusual advantages in acquiring a practical knowledge of their profession, and care is taken so to regulate the hours of instruction in the class-room as not to interfere with their full enjoyment of these privileges. Several of the resident members of the Bar with large practice have generously offered the facilities which their offices and private libraries supply, without charge, to the students, and the large, valuable and constantly increasing Library of "THE BAR ASSOCIATION" is opened to their use. The peculiar advantages of a thorough and systematic instruction in the abstract principles and formal rules of the law, of the constant observation of the practical application of those principles and rules to the exigencies of actual life, and of personal exercise in the use and handling of them, are thus combined here to a degree that is possible only amid the ceaseless activities and as ceaseless litigations of a large commercial city.

As heretofore, there is reason to hope that hereafter, the regular instructions of the Professors will be supplemented by lectures, regular or occasional, delivered by learned and accomplished practising lawyers of the City Bar.

There is no city or section of the United States which gathers into itself all the elements of a desirable residence to a larger extent than Baltimore does; and young gentlemen from the counties will find it eminently pleasant and profitable to spend the months of their professional education in this city.

F E E S .

The annual session of eight months, from the 1st October to the 31st May, is divided into two terms of four months each; and the charge for instruction is twenty-five dollars for the ticket of each of the two Professors for each term, or one hundred dollars for the two tickets for the whole annual session, embracing the two terms. The ticket of either Professor can be taken alone, but it is a great disadvantage not to attend the whole course.

BOARD can be had in the city at prices varying from $4 to $10 per week.
