HISTORICAL SKETCH.

The General Assembly of Maryland in 1812 authorized the College of Medicine of Maryland, founded in 1807, "to constitute, appoint and annex to itself, three other colleges or faculties, viz—The Faculty of Divinity, the Faculty of Law and The Faculty of the Arts and Sciences," and declared that "the four colleges or faculties thus united, should be constituted an university by the name and under the title of the University of Maryland." In pursuance of this authority the University was organized in 1813, being one of the oldest chartered universities in America, coming eighth according to official figures.

While the first faculty of law was chosen in 1813, and David Hoffman was elected professor of law, and published in 1817 "A Course of Legal Study addressed to Students and the Profession Generally" which the North American Review pronounced to be "by far the most perfect system for the study of law which has ever been offered to the public" and which recommended a course of study so comprehensive as to require for its completion six or seven years, no regular school of instruction in law was opened until 1823. This was suspended in 1836 for lack of proper pecuniary support and on account of the small number of students who were able or willing to spend the time necessary, when admission to the bar was of little difficulty, to take advantage of the course of Professor Hoffman, whose ideals of legal education were far in advance of his times. In 1869 the Law School was reorganized, and in 1870 regular instruction therein was again begun. From time to time the course has been made more comprehensive and the Board of Instructors increased in number. Its graduates now number more than sixteen hundred, and included among them are a large proportion of the leaders of the Bench and Bar of the State and many who have attained prominence in the profession elsewhere.

The lectures in this school, where all the professors were actively engaged either upon the Bench or at the Bar, have been mainly given in the afternoons. In order to afford deserving young men, who could not attend lectures except at night, the advantages of systematic instruction in preparing for the Bar, two other Law schools were organized under charters granted by the State of Maryland, viz—the Baltimore Law School and the Baltimore University School of Law. These schools, both of which were doing good work and steadily advancing their standards, were consolidated under the name of the Baltimore Law School, on the first day of February, 1911, and in 1913 had an enrollment of 270 students.

With a view of still further elevating the standard of legal education in this State, and at the same time affording to every young man, who has the requisite preliminary training, fitting him to successfully prosecute legal studies, an opportunity to properly qualify himself for the Bar, arrangements were made by which the Baltimore Law School has become merged into the Law School of the University of Maryland and the latter is conducting a day and a night school, both having the same curriculum, faculty and requirements for admission and graduation, and these will aim to accord with those laid down by the Association of American Law Schools.

Location, Building and Library.

The buildings of the several departments of the University of Maryland, except those of the School of Arts and Sciences in Annapolis, are all located at the corner of Lombard and Greene Streets, in the City of Baltimore. The law building, which adjoins the medical department, contains two large and two small lecture rooms. The large, pleasant library, maintained for the use of the students, contains numerous carefully selected text-books on the various subjects embraced in the curriculum, reports of the Supreme Court of the United States, the Federal Reporter, Lawyers' Reports Annotated, English Common Law Reports, Maryland Reports, volumes of leading cases, digests, statutes, etc., as well as works on English and American History and Politics, and the tables are supplied with the leading Law Reviews. No fee is charged for the use of the library, which is annually growing in size and value by the addition of new volumes of Reports and text-books. The consolidation of the Law School with the Baltimore Law School has greatly increased the size and importance of the library, which now contains more than 5,000 standard volumes. No attempt has been made to duplicate the Library of the Baltimore Bar, which the students of the Law School are, under certain conditions, permitted to use. The Library will be open for the use of the students from 10 A. M. to 11 P. M. and a librarian will be in charge during those hours to assist the students in finding and using the books. The students will be permitted to use the books freely in the reading room, but will not be permitted to take them from the library under any pretext whatever, and any violation of this rule will be severely punished. As the books receive considerable handling through their frequent use, the students are requested to use them with care.

The Library of the Peabody Institute and the Enoch Pratt Free Library contain many works on the law which are available to the students without charge.

Course of Instruction.

The course of instruction in the Law School extends through three scholastic years of thirty-two weeks each, with an average of at least ten hours of class room work each week, and aims to present a general and complete view of the science of law, with reference not only to its growth by judicial exposition, but also to the principles which have been engrafted upon it by positive enactment. The course of study embraces both the theory and the practice of the law, and is designed to thoroughly equip the student for the practice of his profession, when he attains the Bar.

Scientific education is afforded in the principles of the Common Law, Equity, the Statutory Law of the State of Maryland and the Public Law of the United States.

Instruction is given by discussion of assigned cases and by lectures, according to the present schedule, delivered between the hours of 4 and 7 P. M. and 7 and 9 P. M. The School thus offers special inducements to young men who are engaged in offices or in business during the day and have only the evening hours for study. The Faculty, however, reserves the right to make such changes in the schedule as may hereafter be deemed desirable.

The system of instruction embraces the study of assigned cases and of approved text-books. It is believed that instruction given through the use of cases alone is unnecessarily laborious, not conducive to uniformity, and likely to produce confusion in the student's mind, unless supplemented by the aid of proper text-books. Accordingly a system of instruction, involving the use of both cases and text-books, is followed.

Students desiring to do so, may take elective or special courses. Such students are not candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws, but will receive certificates of proficiency in the branches pursued. Courses of instruction will be arranged with special reference to those desiring to obtain a knowledge of certain branches of the law, as an aid in business, or in the management of estates.

The Law School endeavors to uphold a high standard of legal education and it aims to give the student a comprehensive view of the whole field of the Law and particularly a knowledge of the fundamentals of American Law, in order to enable him to pass the examination for the Bar, if he has chosen the legal profession for his life work, or to fit him to properly care for his business interests, if he desires legal education merely as the accomplishment of the well-equipped man of business or man of culture.

The lectures are intended to present all the leading principles of the common law applicable to the subject, and the modification of the common law by statute, and to give illustrations of the application of the common and statute law. Special attention is given to the statutes in force in Maryland, and to peculiarities of the law in that State, where there are such; but the reasons for these statutory modifications and local peculiarities are explained so that the student may in a short time acquaint himself with the local peculiarities of the law in any State in which he may practice.

Readings from text-books and adjudicated cases will be assigned on the subjects treated of in the lectures.

It will be seen that the full course of study extends over three years and as the Faculty is satisfied that students, who have not made considerable progress in the law before entering the Law School, would do themselves and the School an injury by attempting to graduate in a shorter period, no student will be permitted to receive the degree of LL.B. until after three full years of study at this school, unless admitted to Advanced Standing, as explained on Page 17 of this catalogue.

PRACTICE COURT.

G. Ridgely Sappington, Director.

Forrest Bramble

Samuel Want

Edwin T. Dickerson

Thomas F. Cadwalader

George O. Blome, Clerk.

Associates.

The Law School endeavors not only to thoroughly equip its students with an accurate knowledge of legal principles, but also to train them in the application of that knowledge and fit them for the practice of the law. To that end, special care and thought is devoted to the conduct of the Practice Court, which is in session throughout the scholastic year.

The work of the Practice Court is designed to afford opportunity not only for the argument of law questions, but also for the preparation and conduct of a case through all its stages, as nearly as possible in accordance with the procedure in actual trial work. A set of Court rules has been adopted in accordance with which the students are required to prepare and file their pleadings and conduct their cases. Students are furnished with statements of facts, supposed to represent the claims of the respective parties to the litigation, from which they draft the necessary pleadings and prepare their cases for trial. They are thus enabled to familiarize themselves with the practical duties of court practice to an extent which the mere argument of mooted questions of law does not afford.

The cases assigned are such as to illustrate the principles involved in all the courses covered by the curriculum, particularly those of Pleading and Practice. The course extends through the Intermediate and Senior Years, affording two full years of Practice Court work. The Court sits in several divisions and cases are tried in each division.

The Court Clerk keeps the docket, Court records and papers filed in the various cases. Permanent "Advisory Counsel" are assigned to each student from among the members of the Faculty.

Attendance at all sessions of the Practice Court by members of the Intermediate and Senior classes is compulsory. Students who are not engaged in the trial of cases at any session are required to decide the cases tried by others.

There is no examination in this course, the grade of the student being based upon the work done in the Courts throughout the year and his attendance. The grade thus attained by the student is treated the same as the grade given on examinations on the other subjects. Each student is required to satisfactorily prepare and argue at least two cases during the scholastic year.

The Practice Court meets every Friday evening during the session at 8 o'clock.

During the course lectures are delivered by the Director on the method of examination of legal questions for oral arguments, preparation of briefs, practice, etc.

Requirements for Admission.

Applicants for admission to the Day or Night School must be at least eighteen years of age, must present evidence of good moral character and if candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws, will be required to give to the study of the law three scholastic years of at least thirty-two weeks each, with an average of at least ten hours' class-room work each week, and to have completed at the time of admission to the School a four years' High School Course or such a course of preparation as would be required for admission to the principal Colleges and Universities in Maryland; but persons who are unable to comply with these entrance requirements or to spend three years in the study of law may be received as special students, not candidates for the degree, and upon completing the whole or any part of the course, may receive certificates of proficiency in the work completed, according to standards to be fixed.

THE FACULTY will consider that students are properly qualified for entrance as candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws who have received a bachelor's degree from any reputable college or university, or certificate of graduation from any of the Normal or High Schools of the State of Maryland, or other reputable institution of a similar character, or have certificates showing that they have passed the entrance examinations to one of the principal colleges or universities in Maryland or a college or university maintaining a standard equal thereto. In the absence of such degree or certificate, candidates for the degree of LL.B. must satisfactorily pass an examination in the ordinary studies required for admission to colleges in this State, and particularly upon the following subjects:

1. ENGLISH—Spelling, Grammar, Composition and Literature.
2. HISTORY—United States and English.
3. MATHEMATICS—Arithmetic, Algebra through Quadratics and Plane Geometry.
4. SCIENCE—Political Economy and Physics or Geography.
5. LANGUAGES—Latin, French or German (at least two years' work).

The Faculty will hold one such examination each year, in the latter part of September, to be announced in the catalogue. The examination will be held September 18th and 19th of this year, from 8 to 10 P. M.

On September 18th examinations will be held upon the following subjects:

- (a) ENGLISH—Spelling, Grammar, Composition and Literature.
- (b) HISTORY—United States and English.

On September 19th:

- (a) MATHEMATICS—Arithmetic, Algebra and Geometry.
- (b) SCIENCE—Political Economy and Physics or Geography.
- (c) LANGUAGES—Latin, French or German (at least two years' work).

Registration.

All students are required when entering for each session to report at the office in person, enroll and procure tickets of admission to the lectures. The date of enrollment for each session will be noted, and names not upon the register will not be placed upon the class rolls. The stipulated period of attendance upon the Law School for the purpose of graduation, and for insertion in the certificate required to take the examination for admission to the bar before the State Board of Law Examiners, will be calculated from the register, and the class rolls made therefrom.

The Faculty reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any student from the School whose continued presence there would not, in the judgment of the Faculty, be of benefit to himself or would be detrimental to the best interests of the School.

Advanced Standing.

Students may be admitted to advanced standing in the Junior or Intermediate classes upon satisfying the requirements for the work of the preceding year or years. These requirements may be met by presenting a certificate from any law school of accredited standing showing that the student has successfully completed equivalent courses in a law school, covering at least as many hours as are required for such subjects in this School. No credit will be given for study pursued in a law office.

Fees and Expenses.

The fees for each term are payable strictly in advance at the commencement of each term, and tickets of admission to the lectures are issued only on payment of fees.

The charges for instruction are as follows:

Students attending and taking the examinations of one class:

For Term of four months.....$40.00

For Session of eight months.....$80.00

Special students will be charged according to the courses pursued.

There will be a matriculation fee of ten dollars charged and payable for each student at the time of matriculation and an additional charge of ten dollars to each graduate as a diploma fee.

Students of this School and the Baltimore Law School, who were enrolled and had attended lectures at their respective schools prior to June 1, 1913, will be subject to the same fees and expenses as were in force at their respective schools on June 1, 1913.

Special arrangements may be made by members of the Bar, or others, not regular students of the Law School, for attending any particular part or branch of instruction at rates of charge in proportion to the above.

Opportunity for Attending Other Lectures.

All the courses upon History and Politics at The Johns Hopkins University are open to law students upon the payment of very moderate fees, and are given at hours which do not interfere with the attendance upon the lectures at the Law School.

Privileges, Courts, Etc.

Any student entered in one class has the privilege, if he sees fit, to be present at the lectures in the subordinate class or classes; and any graduate of the school has the privilege of attending all the lectures for the session next ensuing his graduation.

There are ten Courts in almost continuous session in Baltimore during the entire scholastic year; the students have unusual opportunities to learn the law by attendance on the Courts, and are advised to attend the Courts when they can conveniently do so, and to give careful attention and thought to the proceedings.

It has been the practice heretofore for students to form Quiz Clubs, composed of from five to ten members. They can, if properly conducted, be made very improving, and students are advised to form them.

EXAMINATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION.

DEGREES—The Law School confers the degree of Bachelor of Laws on students of good moral character who have attended the course of lectures to all three classes, have attained the required standard at the examinations and in the Practice Court and have submitted to the Faculty a satisfactory thesis.

(1) No student will be graduated whose grade is less than fifty in any subject,

(2) Or less than seventy-five in each of two or more subjects,

(3) Or less than seventy-five in any subject and whose general average is less than eighty in all subjects for the entire course.

EXAMINATIONS—There are six examinations each session—two of the Senior Class, two of the Intermediate Class, and two of the Junior Class. Each class has an examination at the close of each term.

The examinations are by printed questions to be answered in writing. Each examination is valued at 100.

Except by affirmative vote of the Faculty, no student will be permitted to take the examinations in any course unless he has attended at least seventy-five per cent. of the lectures therein.

In marking all examination papers, composition and clearness of expression will be taken into account.

THESIS—Each candidate for a degree must prepare a satisfactory typewritten thesis of not less than three thousand words on some legal topic to be selected by the Faculty. This thesis must represent original investigation on the part of the student. In no case will a mere compilation of authorities be accepted. Theses must be handed in on or before April 1 of the year in which the degree is to be granted. Each writer must attach to it a sealed envelope containing his name.

The subject for the thesis for the next session will be given to the students in November, 1916. The attention of the students is called to the fact that the Faculty will require a high standard of excellence in the theses.

Honors and Prizes.

In the year 1917 two prizes of $100 each will be awarded:

One to the student of the graduating class who obtains the highest average grade for the entire course, and one to the student of the graduating class who submits the most meritorious thesis.

Admission to the Bar.

For the rules governing admission to the Bar in Maryland, see the Rules of the Court of Appeals at page 33.

Board.

Board can be had in the city at prices varying from $4 to $10 a week.

COMMENCEMENT.

The Annual Commencement for the session of 1915-16 was held at the Lyric at 4 P. M., June 1, 1916, jointly with the other departments of the University. Hon. Emerson C. RULES

OF THE

COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND

REGULATING ADMISSION TO THE BAR

Adopted in pursuance of the Act of 1898, Ch. 139.

FIRST.

All applications for admission to the Bar shall be made by petition to the Court of Appeals. The petition shall be under oath, and shall state:

(a) The full name, age, residence, and place of birth of the applicant.

(b) If the petitioner shall apply for admission as a member of the Bar of another State or of the Courts of the United States pursuant to section 6 of chapter 139 of the Acts of 1898, the petitioner shall state that he is now an actual resident of this State, and shall further name the State in which and the Court by which the petitioner was admitted to the Bar, and shall also state that the petitioner has, for at least five years before filing his said petition, been engaged as a practitioner or teacher of the law or a Judge in such State. The petitioner shall file with his petition a copy of his license to practice, duly certified, or a copy of the record of the Court in which he was so admitted, certified as required by law for the authentication of the records of Courts of other States when offered as evidence in the Courts of this State.

The petitioner shall also file a certificate of a Judge of the State in which he was so admitted or a certificate from two members of the Bar of this State certifying how long they have known the applicant and that he is not a person of bad or dissolute habits, but of good moral character, and that he has never, so far as known to the person or persons certifying, been guilty of any criminal or disgraceful conduct, and that he is, at the time of such certificate, a member of the Bar in good standing, and that he has been actively engaged as practitioner or teacher of the law or Judge in such State for at least five years before filing of said petition.

(c) If the petitioner shall not apply for admission as a member of the Bar of another State, the petition shall further state:

That the petitioner has studied law in the office of a member of the Bar of this State or in a law school of the United States for at least two years,* that while so studying the law he diligently pursued the course of study prescribed in Rule 5.

The petitioner shall file with his petition a certificate from the member of the Bar in whose office he studied, or if the petitioner studied in a law school, a certificate from the President, Dean or any instructor of such school, certifying that the petitioner has pursued under his direction for at least two years the course of study prescribed in Rule 5, and that the petitioner is not a person of bad or dissolute habits but of good moral character, and that he has never, so far as known to the person certifying, been guilty of any criminal or disgraceful conduct.

The certificates hereinbefore provided for shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated in them.

The petition shall be filed at least ten days before the day fixed for an examination by the State Board of Law Examiners.

SECOND.

All applicants for admission to the Bar, including members of the Bar of other States, shall pay a fee of twenty-five dollars at the time of filing their petition.

No petition will be considered or referred to the State Board of Law Examiners until said fee is paid to the Treasurer of the said Board.

THIRD.

All applications for admission to the Bar, except applications from members of the Bar of other States, shall be referred to the State Board of Law Examiners, who shall examine the applicants as to their qualifications to practice law.

FOURTH.

The Board of Law Examiners shall meet twice annually, once in the month of June, and once in the month of November, at such place in the State of Maryland as said Board may determine, for the purpose of conducting such examination. Thirty days' public notice of the time and place of meeting shall be given.

The said Board shall hold such other meetings for the purpose of conducting examinations at such time and place and on such notice as may be directed by the Court of Appeals from time to time by special orders.

FIFTH.

All examinations shall be in writing. All applicants shall be examined by said Board on each of the following subjects: (1) Elementary Law; (2) Contracts; (3) Torts; (4) Wills and Administration of Estates; (5) Corporations; (6) Evidence; (7) Equity; (8) Real Property; (9) Personal Property; (10) Criminal Law; (11) Domestic Relations; (12) Pleading and Practice at Law and in Equity (at Common Law and in Maryland); (13) Constitutional Law; (14) International Law; (15) Legal Ethics.

The Board may at its election, in addition to the written examination, examine orally any or all of the applicants.

SIXTH.

The State Board of Law Examiners may prescribe rules for the conduct of examinations, provided that the applicants shall be allowed at least six hours in which to prepare the answers in the written examination.

The State Board of Law Examiners shall, as soon as practicable after such examination, report to the Court of Appeals all their proceedings in connection with such examination. They shall file with their report a copy of the questions asked and all the replies. The report shall also state the conclusions of said Board as to the qualifications of all applicants and shall recommend in the case of each person examined that he be or be not admitted to the Bar.

SEVENTH.

The names and places of residence of all persons recommended by said Board for admission to the Bar shall be published once a week for three successive weeks in two daily newspapers published in the City of Baltimore before the day fixed for the ratification of the report of the State Board of Law Examiners.

If no exceptions are filed to the report of the Board of Law Examiners within thirty days after their report is filed, the recommendations contained in their report shall be adopted, the action of the Board ratified and the applicants admitted or rejected, as recommended by the Board.

If exceptions to the report of the Board shall be filed, such exceptions shall be heard and decided by the Court. In case an exception shall be filed to the recommendation of the Board that any applicant shall not be admitted to the Bar, and the exception relates to the qualification of the applicant to practice law, no new examination will be held, but the exception heard and determined on an examination of the applicant's answers to the questions asked him. If the exception relates to the moral character of the applicant, the exceptant and the applicant shall have the right to produce evidence in support of or against their exception before the Court or before an Examiner appointed for the purpose of taking testimony.

EIGHTH.

When it shall be determined by the Court of Appeals that an applicant is qualified to practice law and is of good moral character, an order will be passed directing that he be admitted to the Bar on taking the oath required of a member of the Bar by the Maryland Code of Public General Laws, Article 10, Section 10.

NINTH.

The members of the Board of Law Examiners shall be entitled to the sum of ten dollars per day for every day actually spent in the discharge of their duties, travelling and other expenses, provided the fees and expenses of said Board shall not exceed the sum paid by applicants as fees.

TENTH.

In the rating of applicants the Examiners shall take into consideration the excellence or defects of the applicant's preliminary education in marking the examination papers and in making out his ratings and in determining the question whether he should pass the examination; and the applicant's attainments in this respect may be ascertained by the Examiners from the examination papers, or in such other method as the Examiners may prescribe.

ELEVENTH.

No person who is not an actual bona fide resident of this State at the time he may apply for admission to the Bar shall be permitted to take the examination prescribed by the foregoing rules; nor shall any person under twenty-one years be allowed to take such examination.

NOTE.—The Court has decided that study of law by correspondence will not be accepted.

N. B.—The State Board of Law Examiners hold such examinations in Baltimore City twice a year—in June and November. A fee of $25 must accompany the application to be allowed to take the examination, as prescribed in rule second.

Departments of the University of Maryland

The University of Maryland is represented by five departments, each having a distinct Faculty of Instruction.

1st. The COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS, at Annapolis, Md. ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, Annapolis, founded in 1696 as King William's School, has by affiliation become the Department of Arts and Sciences of the UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND. The curriculum leads to the degree of Bachelor, or Master of Arts and Sciences. (a) (b).

2nd. The SCHOOL OF MEDICINE, in Baltimore, Md. This School was established in Baltimore in 1807, and offers a high-grade course in medicine, extending over a period of four years, and leading to the degree of Doctor of Medicine. It represents the Department of Medicine.

3rd. The SCHOOL OF LAW in Baltimore, Md. This School, founded in 1812, and reorganized in 1869, is designed, by means of a course of study covering three years, to qualify its students for the degree of Bachelor of Laws, and for an intelligent practice of the law. It represents the Department of Law.

4th. The DEPARTMENT OF DENTISTRY was organized in 1882, and is designed to teach the art of dentistry as an integral part of the SCHOOL OF MEDICINE. The course of study leading to the degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery covers a period of three years.

5th. The DEPARTMENT OF PHARMACY was established in 1840 as the Maryland College of Pharmacy, and affiliated with the SCHOOL OF MEDICINE in 1904. The course of study, including thorough training in the art of dispensing and methods of proper selection of drugs, covers two years, and leads to the degree of Doctor of Pharmacy.

(a) Seniors in St. John's College may elect twelve requisite hours a week in the Law School of the University. The degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Sciences is conferred upon such students at the end of the year. The Professional Degree may be reached in two years more.

(b) Students who have completed the Junior Year in St. John's College and who have made an approved choice of electives may, if they desire, do the entire work of the Senior Year in the Medical School of the University. If they successfully complete the work of the first medical year, they are graduated with their class with the degree of A.B. from St. John's College.

By taking advantage of this privilege, a man may complete the Undergraduate and Medical courses in seven years.

During three of these years, or until he has completed the work of the Junior Class, he is a resident student in St. John's College, and for four years he is a resident in the Medical School in Baltimore.

At the end of the fourth year, he receives the A.B. degree, and at the end of the seven years the M.D. degree, but credit from the Medical School cannot be accepted in subjects for which credit has already been given in the College of Liberal Arts.

Young Men's Christian Association

University of Maryland

This Association since its establishment, nineteen years ago, has steadily grown in numbers and influence and has met a need of the University life.

All students of any Department of the University are eligible to membership as actives or associates, which membership includes special privileges in the City Association.

The Association's headquarters are in one of the buildings of the University.

Bible and Mission Classes are maintained by the Association throughout the University year, and every effort is exerted to promote Christian character and morality.

A committee will be on hand at the opening of the session to welcome new students to the University, and will also be glad to render assistance in the way of securing comfortable rooms, boarding houses, etc., and to extend any other courtesies possible.

All young men who intend to enter the University are cordially invited to share in the privileges of the Association, and to address the officer named below, who will be glad to furnish any information desired regarding the Association and its work, and to render any assistance in his power. Upon arriving in the city, students are requested to make themselves known to the Y. M. C. A. officers as soon as possible.

JOHN W. EDEL, President, Law Department,
University of Maryland, Baltimore, Md.
