THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

*O say can you see,—by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night—that our flag was still there.
O say does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?*

MARYLAND, MY MARYLAND

*Thou wilt not cower in the dust,
Maryland, My Maryland!
Thy gleaming sword shall never rust,
Maryland, My Maryland!
Remember Carroll's sacred trust,
Remember Howard's warlike thrust,
And all thy slumb'ers with the just,
Maryland, My Maryland!*

*I hear the distant thunder hum,
Maryland, My Maryland!
The Old Line bugle, fife and drum,
Maryland, My Maryland!
Come to thine own heroic throng,
That stalks with Liberty along,
And ring thy dauntless slogan song,
Maryland, My Maryland!*

MARYLAND ALMA MATER

*Hail! Alma Mater!
Hail to thee, Maryland!
Steadfast in loyalty
For thee we stand.
Love for the Black and Gold,
Deep in our hearts we hold,
Singing, thy praise forever,
Throughout the land.*

OF DEGREE

1955

DR. MILTON STOVER EISENHOWER

President of The Johns Hopkins University

Born at Abilene, Kansas, September 15, 1899. Dr. Eisenhower received his Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial Journalism from Kansas State College, 1924, and engaged in graduate studies, University of Edinburgh, Scotland, 1924-26.

He has performed distinguished service in the areas of government and education.

In the service of the United States government, Dr. Eisenhower has served on a number of special missions including assignments as Special Ambassador and Personal Representative of the President of the United States on Latin American Affairs; member, President's Committee on Government Organization; delegate to four UNESCO Conferences.

In the area of service to education, Dr. Eisenhower has served as President of Kansas State College and The Pennsylvania State University, and as President of the Association of Land-Grant Colleges and Universities. Dr. Eisenhower is presently Director of the Fund for Adult Education; member of the Permanent Advisory Committee of Higher Education, State of Maryland; and a member of the Board of Visitors, United States Naval Academy.

Dr. Eisenhower is a Trustee of the Enoch Pratt Free Library; Director, Freedoms Foundation, Inc.; Director, The Geisinger Memorial Hospital; Honorary Chairman, The American-Korean Foundation.

Dr. Eisenhower is the recipient of some 23 honorary degrees bestowed by colleges and universities here and in Latin America. Among the numerous awards for service he has received are the Horatio Alger Award, the Junior Achievement Award, Order of Boyaca of the Government of Columbia, Republic of Korea Award, Order of the Liberator in the Class of Grand Cordon from the Government of Venezuela, Great Cross of the National Order of the "Condor of the Andes", from the Government of Bolivia, Grand Cross of the Eloy Alfaro International Foundation, Cunningham Award for Promoting Hemispheric Relations, and others.

DR. WILBUR GEORGE MALCOLM

President of the American Cyanamid Company

Born at Moscow Mills, Maryland, June 22, 1902. Bachelor of Science, 1922, University of Maryland; Ph.D. in Bacteriology, 1930, University of Maryland. Instructor at the University, 1922-24.

Dr. Malcolm served as General Manager of Cyanamid's Lederle Laboratories Division during the period when Lederle became an important factor in the ethical pharmaceutical field and, with the discovery of Aureomycin R chlortetracycline, the country's leading producer of broad spectrum antibiotics. His promotion was in recognition of his achievements in making antiserum against many forms of pneumonia, a disease which at that time was often fatal. In the years following 1938, Dr. Malcolm directed the efforts of Lederle Laboratories toward discovering, testing and producing many chemicals and antibiotics for the treatment of pneumonia as well as many other diseases of animals and mankind so that he has become a leader of the revolution of medical science which has projected the world into the Antibiotic Age.

Dr. Malcolm's professional memberships include honorary membership in the International College of Surgeons; life membership in the New York Academy of Sciences; membership in the American Society of Bacteriologists; and the Executive Committee of the American Drug Manufacturers' Association. His family residence is at Grand View-on-Hudson, New York.

THE HONORABLE MORRIS A. SOPER

Judge, United States Court of Appeals, 4th Circuit

Born at Baltimore, Maryland, January 23, 1873. Received the Bachelor of Arts degree from The Johns Hopkins University in 1893, and the LL.B. degree from the University of Maryland in 1895. Judge Soper has since received honorary degrees of LL.D. from St. John's College and The Johns Hopkins University.

He served as Chief Judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City from 1914 to 1921; was appointed United States District Judge for the District of Maryland in 1923; and in 1931 was appointed to the United States Court of Appeals, Fourth Circuit.

Judge Soper, for many years, has been considered one of the outstanding Federal judges in the United States. He has also served as a leading citizen of the State, active in many and varied civic and professional movements. This past winter Judge Soper was the subject of impressive ceremonies in the Federal Court in Baltimore, upon the occasion of his eighty-fifth birthday, in which leaders of the Maryland bench and bar participated.

DR. ROBERT LEE SWAIN

Editor of Drug Topics and Drug Trade News

Born at Redden, Delaware, September 29, 1887. Dr. Swain received his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Maryland in 1909, and Bachelor of Laws degree in 1932. He has served as member and Secretary-Treasurer of the Maryland Board of Pharmacy; Deputy Food and Drug Commissioner for the Maryland Department of Health; Chairman of the National Association of Retail Druggists' Committee on State and National Fair Trade Legislation (during which time Fair Trade legislation was enacted by most of the states, and the U. S. Congress passed the Miller-Tydings Act); President of the American Pharmaceutical Association; President of the National Association of Boards of Pharmacy; President of the Maryland Pharmaceutical Association.

Dr. Swain has taught at Temple University and George Washington University and has served on the American Council on Pharmaceutical Education. He has acted as consultant to the Surgeon General of the United States Army. In journalism, Dr. Swain's career is one of distinction covering work on the United States Pharmacopoeia, and embracing the editorship of The Maryland Pharmacist and later the internationally-known Drug Topics and Drug Trade News.
